FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Fred Meyer presents the 7th Annual Soulful Giving Blanket Concert

Portland, OR, April 28, 2017 – The Soulful Giving Foundation, Fred Meyer, and 43 other generous sponsors have teamed up to stage the 7th edition of the Soulful Giving Concert on August 5th at the Yoshida Gardenvue Estate in Troutdale, Oregon. This fundraiser event was created to help support Randall Children’s Hospital and Providence Cancer Center’s efforts to research & treat children’s cancer. Oregon Governor Kate Brown (honorary foundation chair) has designated that date ‘Oregon Children’s Cancer Awareness Day’. The 21 & over event features live music, gourmet food, live & silent auctions, raffles, yard games, and shopping, and special guest appearances.

The outdoor stage will feature performances by Stone In Love (Journey tribute band), Haley Johnsen (American Idol season 11), Barracuda (Heart tribute), All Fired Up (Pat Benatar tribute), Goldfoot (original dance/funk) and Dancehall Days (dance hit covers).

The culinary offerings include 12 area restaurants serving in the food pavilion, a food cart pod with 4 options, and wine, beer, cocktails, coffee, & sodas available at various points around the event.

This is truly an experience not to be missed! Premium tickets are $50 and include free parking at Mt. Hood Community College, shuttle service, and two free drink tokens per person. $100 VIP tickets include gourmet food tasting in the pavilion, three drink tokens, JMI limo service, champagne, and awesome goodie bags. Visit the foundation website at www.soulfulgiving.org for event schedule, maps, purchase link and additional information.
